Dr. Vitaly Chernovanenko

President of the Ukrainian Association for Jewish Studies

To show our solidarity and support for your struggles defending your families and country from Russian aggression EAIS, following the decision of the European Association for Jewish Studies, the Executive Board of the EAIS decided to announce a temporary membership waiver for scholars based in Ukraine.

Scholars representing Ukrainian universities and based in Ukraine who hold a PhD or are PhD students and are engaged in research of Israel will be entitled to a three-year membership waiver (2022, 2023, 2024) after successful application submitted until 31 August 2022. Ukrainian Israel Studies scholars who have left Ukraine since the war began may also be entitled to a membership fee waiver depending on their circumstances. For more information, please contact the EAIS before the deadline (info@israelstudies.eu).
